An Evening With Colin Mochrie and Brad Sherwood

A fully improvised evening of comedy and mayhem. Everything in the show is based on audience suggestions and many audience members are brought up on stage to be part of the craziness. The entire evening is completely improvised and never the same twice. Nov. 22, 7 p.m. Saenger Theater, 850-432-1450

Guitarist Ana Vidovic

As part of the UWF Music Hall Artist Series, the Department of Music will present a concert featuring Classical Guitarist Ana Vidovic Nov. 23 at 7:30 p.m. in the Center for Fine and Performing Arts Music Hall, Building 82. Tickets: $16 general public, $12 senior citizens and military, $10 UWF faculty and staff and non-UWF students and free for UWF students with a valid Nautilus Card.

Irving Berlin's 'I Love A Piano' at the Saenger

On Friday, Nov. 27 at 7:30 p.m., see Irvin Berlin's classic story of an enchanting new musical journey spanning seven decades of American history as seen through the perceptive and hopeful eyes of Irving Berlin. Timeless classics, such as "White Christmas," "God Bless America," "Puttin' on the Ritz," and "There's No Business Like Show Business," do more than define the music of a generation, they define the music of our country. ## 1330AM WEBY

Northwest Florida's Talk Radio

Neal Boortz

9:00 am - 11:30 am
Mon. - Fri.

Politically incorrect and proud of it! His libertarian philosophy rankles conservatives (who think he's too liberal) and liberals (who think he's too conservative).

The son of a Marine Corps officer, Neal Boortz grew up in Pensacola (PHS class of 1963). He has dominated Atlanta Radio since 1969. Now WEBY brings this top-notch talent home.
