

Kelly Clarkson headlines month at Civic Center

See the pop superstar perform at the Pensacola Civic Center on Friday, Dec. 11

Pop megastar Kelly Clarkson brings her "All I Ever Wanted" Tour to the Pensacola Civic Center on December 11! Joining Clarkson are Eric Hutchinson and rising band Parachute.

Clarkson has sold more than 20 million albums since her 2002 debut. Her current All I Ever Wanted release shattered Billboard records.

Since winning the inaugural American Idol competition in 2002, Clarkson has released four albums: Thankful (2003), her multi-platinum second album Breakaway (2004), My December (2007), and her latest album All I Ever Wanted (2009).

Her first four albums have sold over 10.3 million copies

Kelly Clarkson brings her "All I Ever Wanted" Tour to the Pensacola Civic Center on December 11. Joining Clarkson are Eric Hutchinson and rising band Parachute.

in the United States.

Concert attendees can expect to hear latest hits including I Do Not Hook Up from the tour's namesake album, along with her signature pop anthems.

Tickets are available at The Pensacola Civic Center Box Office, Ticketmaster outlets, Charge by phone (800) 745-3000, or internet www.ticketmaster.com (additional fees may apply).

The All-American Rejects will perform live at The Swamp on Okaloosa Island on Friday, December 4, from 6 to 11 p.m. The band consists of lead vocalist and bass guitarist Tyson Ritter, guitarists Nick Wheeler and Mike Kennerty, and drummer Chris Gaylor.

The All American Rejects play The Swamp, Fort Walton

The All-American Rejects, an American rock band from Stillwater, Okla., will perform live at The Swamp on Okaloosa Island on Friday, December 4, from 6 to 11 p.m.

The band, which formed in 1999, consists of lead vocalist and bass guitarist Tyson Ritter, guitarists Nick Wheeler and Mike Kennerty, and drummer Chris Gaylor.

Their debut self-titled studio album, The All-American Rejects, was originally released in 2002, producing the successful single "Swing, Swing". The album went on to sell over one million records in the United States.

The band's second album, Move Along (2005), brought the band more mainstream success. The All-American Rejects' third album, When the World Comes Down, was released in 2008. Since the start of their career, The All-American Rejects have sold over 10 million records worldwide.

For more information about the show, visit www.swampclub.com

Music Notes

'Evenings' returns to Olde Seville Square with holiday version

The tree-lined park comes alive with the sights and sounds of the holidays as family and friends gather for "A Holiday Evening in Olde Seville Square" from 6:30-9 p.m. on Thursday, Dec. 3 in Seville Square in Historic Downtown Pensacola.

The McGuire's Bagpipe Band will kick off the evening with several all-holiday tunes, followed by a reading of "'Twas the Night Before Christmas" by WEAR anchor Jared Willets. Clark & Company will then take the stage to play your favorite Christmas songs including the very popular, "Twelve Days of Christmas."

The Pensacola Civic Band, under the direction of Don Snowden, will entertain the audience with a Christmas Jazz Suite, "Silent Night," "Winter Wonderland," "'Twas in the Moon of Wintertime" and many oth-

See Evenings, pg. 29

OPEN 10AM-3AM 7 DAYS A WEEK SANDSHAKER.COM

GIRLS' NIGHT OUT

Every Wednesday at the

1/2 PRICE DRINKS FOR THE LADIES 6PM TIL CLOSE!

KARAOKE at 8PM

Sandshaker Lounge & Pkg.
731 Pear Beach Blvd., Pensacola Beach
(Across from the Boardwalk) 850.938.9211

Quayside Art Gallery

120 LOCAL ARTISTS
3 FLOORS OF ORIGINAL ART

"All Gallery Christmas Show"
November 18 - January 5
DADA Reception - November 20

"New Members Show 2010"
January 6 - February 10
Reception Jan 8, 5-8pm

850.438.2363
www.quaysidegallery.com
17 e. zaragoza downtown pensacola
open seven days a week