

PLT opens Studio 400 season with 'Short Attention Span Theatre'

Pensacola Little Theatre's Studio 400 season continues in February with six short plays about the ups and downs of the modern relationship.

"Short Attention Span Theatre" is a collection of one-act plays about relationships and romance submitted by authors across the country. All of the plays this year are original and unpublished and for many, this is their world premiere performance.

Directing for "Short Attention Span Theatre" this year are Jessica Wade Abston, Samantha Holsworth and Eric VanderVort. The cast includes Barbara Jacobs, Brooke Martin, Paula Petsel, Scott Wade, Ken Armitage, Shanna Petsel, April Sargent, Cory Hinsch, Renee Jordan, David Blanton, Jordan Rinaldi, Brandon Denson, Kyra Trask and Nicole Dickson.

"Short Attention Span Theatre" is playing for two weekends:

■ Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, February 11-13, at 7:30 p.m.

■ Friday and Saturday, February 19-20, at 7:30 p.m.

■ Sunday, February 21, at 2:30 p.m.

Tickets are $14 for café seating and $10 for general admission and may be purchased at the Box Office or by phone at 850-432-2042. The Box Office is open 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, and one hour prior to curtain on performance dates.

Other upcoming productions include the musical hit "Victor/Victoria," opening on March 5, and the perennial favorite "Little Shop of Horrors," opening on June 11. Tickets for all 2009/2010 Season productions are on sale now. For information on these and other PLT productions, visit our website www.pensacolalittletheatre.com.

Pensacola Church hosts concert to benefit healing

The Unity Church of Pensacola presents "DIVINE SOUND" - a multi-traditional musical event where East meets West, Earth meets Sky, and Heart meets Soul.

This is a fundraising concert for The Center for Pranic Healing and Wellness that takes place on Saturday, Feb. 27 from 6 - 9 p.m. at Unity Church, located at 9th & Jackson.

"Divine Sound" will unite musicians and artists from a variety of cultural and spiritual traditions for a common celebration of divine expression through music and sound.

As a fundraiser, the event supports The Center for Pranic Healing and Wellness - a 501(c)3 not-for-profit organization in Gulf Breeze that provides healing services, meditations, and educational opportunities to the community. "Divine Sound" supports the unification and healing of our community through music, spiritual celebration, and the support of on-going healing services.

Tickets go on sale Feb 1 at Ever'man (Pensacola) and Baybridge Chiropractic (Gulf Breeze). For more information, visit: www.pranichealingandwellness.com or call 850-723-7282.

Politically incorrect and proud of it! His libertarian philosophy rankles conservatives (who think he's too liberal) and liberals (who think he's too conservative).

The son of a Marine Corps officer, Neal Boortz grew up in Pensacola (PHS class of 1963). He has dominated Atlanta Radio since 1969. Now WEBY brings this top-notch talent home.
